

Symposium

Double Unification

Germany and Europe After 1989

Thursday, April 23, 2009

Tel Aviv University,
Gilman Building, Room 133 (Ground Floor)

14:00 GREETINGS:

Raanan Rein, Director, S. Daniel Abraham Center for International and Regional Studies

José Brunner, Director, Minerva Institute for German History

14:15-16:00 SESSION ONE:

Chair: Raanan Rein

James Sheehan, Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA
The Transformation of Europe and the End of the Cold War

Michael Zürn, Social Science Research Center, Berlin
The Fall of the Berlin Wall, Globalization and the Future of Europe

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-18:45 SESSION TWO:

Chair: José Brunner

Martin Sabrow, Center for Contemporary History, Potsdam
Wende or Revolution? "1989" in German Remembrance

Raphael Vago, Tel Aviv University
The Rise and Fall of the Central European Idea After 1989

Sharon Pardo, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, Beer Sheva
So Close, So Far? Israel, the European Union and the Mediterranean

18:45-19:00 CONCLUDING REMARKS: José Brunner

The public is invited