At its session on the 28th day of February 2007 the Senate of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Barbara Seal

in recognition of her inspiring and engaged leadership role in Canadian public and Jewish life; her philanthropic spirit in championing a range of social, welfare and cultural causes both in Canada and Israel; her outstanding career as judge and municipal councillor; her active commitment to the State of Israel; and in special recognition of her longstanding support, together with her husband Donald, of Tel Aviv University, particularly her two decades of dedicated service as National President of the Canadian Friends association; and her indefatigable efforts in recruiting new friends and benefactors of the University and promoting worthy projects on campus, by conferring upon her the degree of Doctor Philosophiae Honoris Causa

of Tel Aviv University
