At its session on the 28th day of February 2007 the Senate of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Dov Lautman

in recognition of his deep love of Israel and outstanding devotion to its economic, civil and social development; his pioneering contribution to Israel's industrial growth, particularly his entrepreneurial success in building up Delta Galil into a global conglomerate; his dedication to providing equal opportunity to the weakest sectors of society; his tireless efforts toward encouraging peaceful coexistence between Jews and Arabs; and in special recognition of his model commitment to strengthening the fabric of Israeli society by initiating and supporting, on both the personal and business levels, a plethora of community, educational, cultural and social programs; and his dedicated years of service to Tel Aviv University as Chairman of the Executive Council and as a valued and well-loved benefactor and supporter, by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor Philosophiae Honoris Causa of Tel Aviv University
