At its session on the 28th day of February 2007, the Senate of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Fred Chaoul

in recognition of his standing as one of the major industrialists in Argentina; his dedication to Jewish causes in Argentina and Israel spanning decades and keen involvement with numerous Jewish organizations; his engagement in Argentinean public life through support of youth in distress, schools and hospitals; and in special recognition his place as one of Tel Aviv University’s most devoted benefactors and governors; and his establishment at the University of major projects, including the Marko and Lucie Chaoul Chair in Information Evaluation and, most recently, the Chaoul Center for Nanoscale Materials and Systems, by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor Philosophiae Honoris Causa

of Tel Aviv University