At its session on the 4th day of December 2005 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Gaby Chariton Brill

in recognition of her extraordinary commitment to Jewish and Israeli causes; the creativity, energy and determination she has brought to leadership roles in major Jewish and community organizations in the United States; and in special recognition of her longstanding friendship toward Tel Aviv University and active contribution to its growth and development both as a Governor and as an organizer of TAU American Council events in Florida; and her generosity in supporting projects in music, Middle Eastern studies, doctoral research and other important areas at the University, by conferring upon her an Honorary Fellowship of Tel Aviv University
