At its session on the 24th day of December, 2007 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

John Landerer CBE AM

in recognition of his committed involvement in a range of public, civic and Jewish initiatives in his native Australia and internationally; his outstanding contribution to higher education, both as supporter and educator, particularly his endeavors on behalf of British-Australian academic relations for which he was bestowed one of the highest honors of the British Commonwealth; his standing as one of the most distinguished corporate law attorneys in Australia; and in special recognition of his longstanding, dedicated and fruitful leadership as president of the Australian Friends of Tel Aviv University in New South Wales and as a TAU Governor; his indefatigable efforts to develop the University through raising funds for worthy projects, recruiting new friends and benefactors and contributing personally; and his contribution to enhancing the University’s image and standing in Australia, by conferring upon him an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University

Dov Lautman, Chairman, Executive Council
Professor Zvi Galil, President