At its session on the 4th day of March, 2009 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Tom Mandel

in recognition of:

his lifetime achievement as a successful businessman, strategic consultant and philanthropist;

his generous support, together with his wife Rae, of health, educational, welfare and Jewish causes in Australia, Israel and around the world; his dedication to the deepest Jewish values of charity, humility and the promotion of education; and in special recognition of his warm friendship toward Israel that spans over five decades; his enthusiastic involvement with the Tel Aviv University Australian Friends Association in Melbourne; and his endeavors on behalf of the University, both as governor and benefactor of doctoral fellowships, by conferring upon him an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP

of Tel Aviv University

Dr. Leora Meridor, Chairperson, Executive Council

Professor Zvi Galil, President
