At its session on the 4th day of December, 2007 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Yehiel Ben-Zvi

in recognition of his exemplary life’s work in the service of Israel, as both soldier and civilian; his outstanding military career in the Israel Defense Forces, which incorporated some of the State’s most defining moments; and in special recognition of his decades of commitment and loyalty in the service of Tel Aviv University as Vice President, helping transform it into a world-class institution; his important role as founding father and leader of the University’s Public Affairs Division for 27 years; his distinctive combination of personal charm and complete identification with the University, which have drawn benefactors and friends from around the world; and his tireless work in raising hundreds of millions of dollars for the academic and physical advancement of the University, including most recently the largest ever donation in the University’s history, by conferring upon him an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University

Dov Lautman, Chairman, Executive Council
Professor Zvi Galil, President