

NURITH KENAAN-KEDAR

THE MADONNA OF THE PRICKLY PEAR CACTUS

Tradition and Innovation in 19th- and 20th-century

Christian Art in the Holy Land

The Madonna of the Prickly Pear Cactus

NURITH KENAAN-KEDAR

THE MADONNA OF THE PRICKLY PEAR CACTUS

Tradition and Innovation in 19th- and 20th-century
Christian Art in the Holy Land

YAD BEN-ZVI PRESS

Graphic design: Michal Semo-Kovetz,
Tel Aviv University Graphic Design Studio

Translation: Naomi Paz

English version editing: Yohai Goell

Photography: Sarit Uzieli

Cover photo: Biagio Biagetti, the façade mosaic:
Mary's journey from Nazareth to Ain Karim

Publication of the book is supported by Tel Aviv University

© All rights reserved

ISBN: 978-965-217-317-1

Print: Eli Meir Printing

Contents

List of color illustrations	7
Acknowledgements	10
Dedication	11
Introduction	13
Notes to the Introduction	18
Chapter 1
1. Religious Art in the Holy Land in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries: A Comparative Overview of the Greek-Orthodox, Armenian, and Latin Churches	22
2. The Greek-Orthodox Church	24
Nineteenth-century Painting in the Greek-Orthodox Communities	25
3. The Armenian Church and Community in the Armenian Quarter of Jerusalem	31
Visual Art and Culture in the Armenian Cathedral of St James	33
Twentieth-century Artistic Activity in the Armenian Church	37
4. What Is Characteristic of Local Art?	38
5. The Latin Church	39
Twentieth-century Artistic Activity in the Latin Church	39
The Franciscan Order as Patron of the Arts
The Second Vatican Council, 1962–1965	41
6. The Churches of the Visitation in Ain Karim and the Annunciation in Nazareth: An Overview of the Pictorial Language	44
Notes to Chapter 1	48

Chapter 2

The Church of the Visitation at Ain Karim

7. History	52
Father Bellarmino Bagatti (1905–90): Archaeologist, Theologian, Scholar	52
Antonio Barluzzi (1884–1960): The Architect	54
8. The Double Church and Its Relation to the Mural Cycles	56
The Lower Church	56
The Upper Church	66
The Cycles of Paintings and Their Significance	67
The Four Artists of the Church of the Visitation	76
Notes to Chapter 2	78

Chapter 3

The Church of the Annunciation in Nazareth

9. Short History	84
10. Planning the New Church	87
Giovanni Muzio's Design for the New Church	88
External Structure	89
The Internal Structure	91
11. The Monumental Mosaics of Salvatore Fiume (1915–97)	94
12. The Madonna Panels: Their Role and Meanings	97
The Church of St Joseph	99
13. Treading a New Path	102
Notes to Chapter 3	103