

Come study in France !

Scholarship Program for Israeli willing to complete a Ph.D. or a Post-Doc.

Young Israeli scientists, willing to complete a Ph.D. a Post-Doc, may qualify for a Fellowship from the French Government to conduct research in France. The “Chateaubriand 2015-2016” call for proposals is open now!

The research will be performed at a French University, a School of Engineering or a Public Laboratory. Before applying for a fellowship, the candidates must contact the host institution to secure a position. Any field of research is relevant, other than Humanities or Social Sciences. These scholarships are available for a period of 12 consecutive months, with a monthly stipend of 2,055 Euros (Ph.D. student) or 2,466 Euros (Post-Doctorate). Health insurance and a round-way airline ticket are also provided. The Campus France (a French public institution in charge of managing international mobility of students & researchers) will be in charge of these aspects.

Applications

We are very glad to announce that a new online application site has been launched. The online registration process will allow you to create a personal account, to apply at your ease and to follow-up your candidature.

Visit the website for more information and to submit your application:
www.france-israel-fellows.org

The call for proposals “Chateaubriand 2015-2016” is open now until January 31, 2015.

Candidates will be notified of their acceptance or rejection by the end of April 2015 in order to be able to begin the scholarship as early as October 2015.

Information Day

You are welcome to an Information Day that will occur on December 5 at 10 am at the French Institute, Sderot Rothschild 7 in Tel-Aviv. It is a great opportunity for you to hear about the scholarships offered by the French Embassy and to ask all the questions you may have in mind about France and its postgraduate education system.

