

Northwestern University / Tel Aviv University Postdoctoral Fellowship Program

Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, USA in partnership with Tel Aviv University announces a Postdoctoral Fellowship in Israel Studies. This appointment will be for a two year residency at Northwestern University beginning September 1 , 2014.

Responsibilities: Teaching five courses over six trimesters (2 years) in Israel Studies, including such areas as: Contemporary Israeli Culture, Literature, Poetry, Art, Theater, Music and Cinema; Sociology and Anthropology of Israeli society; the Economy of Israel; the Israeli Political System; Religion in Israel; the History of Israel and the Arab-Israeli conflict.

Eligibility: the program encourages submissions from candidates affiliated with all Israeli universities. Applicants must have earned their Ph.D. no more than five years prior to the date of application. Proficiency in English and a demonstrable record of distinguished college-level teaching experience are required.

Application should include updated curriculum vitae, abstract of Ph.D. dissertation, summary of research and teaching interests, two course outlines and two letters of recommendation with at least one commenting on candidate's teaching capabilities.

To view the complete announcement for this position please see:
<http://www.dayan.org/northwestern-university-tau-postdoctoral-fellowship> or contact: joeldparker@gmail.com, Telephone: 03-6408092, 03-6409100.

Applications should be received by February 15, 2014

Please mail to: joeldparker@gmail.com

(Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer)