- I Examinees in the French or Spanish language can take this exam for all faculties only in July 2006. Applicants who take the psychometric exam in Hebrew, Arabic, Russian or combined version English/Hebrew, can take the exam in July only for the Faculty of Humanities and Faculty of Arts (except for Architecture and Film and Television).
- II For details for registration to this exam, please call the Center of Hebrew studies Office, at least 45 days before each session. All candidates must achieve at least the “pass” level (level “alef”) prior to the beginning of the academic year. At the end of their first semester, all students must reach the “B” level (level “bet”) on their own, possibly by taking the “Yael” exam again. Candidates to Medicine, Dental Medicine and M.A. in Economics, must achieve at least “Bet” level prior to the beginning of the academic year.
- III For all applicants to graduate studies from abroad who have not graduated from an institution where the language of instruction is English and all candidates who have or wish to take this exam, see the Hebrew booklet. In order to take this test the student must purchase the registration kit (at Dyonon bookshop in the Mitchell Building near Gate 7, in main post offices, and other universities’ bookshops).
- IV Registration kit for this exam is available at the “Dyonon”, in the other Universities’ bookshops and in the post offices. All candidates from abroad to the Faculty of Engineering must take this exam (The exam is optional for candidates to the Faculty of Exact Sciences, the Faculty of Management and the Department of Physiotherapy).
- V Candidates may take the exam twice. Information concerning examination dates for the second semester will be available at the registration office during November 2006.
- VI Candidates holding a French High School Diploma from countries where the language of instruction is French are exempted.
