SuspenSeful Times and the Moving Image
The Eighth Tel Aviv International Colloquium on Cinema and Television Studies
8-10 June 2010, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Colloquium Committee:
Ilan Avisar, Nitzan Ben-Shaul, Régine-Mihal Friedman, Boaz Hagin, Sandra Meiri, Judd Ne’eman, Raz Yosef, Anat Zanger

Colloquium Managers:
Isaac Rosen, Maya Gayer

We gratefully acknowledge the generous support of:
The Open University of Israel
Cultural & Scientific Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Israel
The Dan David Foundation
The Karin Brandauer Chair for Visiting Professors in Theatre, Film and Television, Tel Aviv University
The Sackler Faculty of Medicine, Tel Aviv University
The Minerva Institutes for German History, Tel Aviv University
Ambassade de France en Israel
Embassy of Switzerland in Israel
Embassy of the Republic of Hungary
The Balassi Institute, Hungary
The Chaim Herzog Institute for Media, Politics and Society, Israel
The Rector of Tel Aviv University Fund
The President of Tel Aviv University Fund

The 13th Tel Aviv International Student Film Festival

Website: http://www.tau.ac.il/~cineconf/
Email: cineconf@post.tau.ac.il

From an advertisement for the Harry Houdini film, The Man from Beyond (Burton L. King, 1921)