Laboratory Corp. of America, or LabCorp, will open its new billing operations center in Greensboro, adding 373 new jobs and moving 52 employees there from Burlington, where the company is based.

The new office will be located in the Salem Building at 1701 Pinecroft Road, and the company will invest about $4 million to renovate and equip the building, officials said in an announcement of the project today that was attended by Gov. Beverly Perdue.

The company will receive nearly $900,000 in incentive money if it meets employment milestones. The city of Greensboro contributed $373,000 to the package, with Guilford County adding $248,791 and the state $275,000, according to the Greensboro Economic Development Alliance.
